South Texas Republicans Unite Around Eric Flores

Mandel, Hinojosa, and Nagy Exit Race to Support Trump-Backed Eric Flores for Congress

SAN BENITO, TX - Republicans across South Texas are uniting behind former U.S. Army Infantry Captain, former federal prosecutor, and Trump-endorsed conservative Eric Flores. In the last 48 hours alone, Scott Mandel and Fred Hinojosa have withdrawn from the field and endorsed Eric Flores, signaling the growing recognition that Eric Flores is the clear choice to win the seat. Candidate Jay Nagy withdrew and endorsed Flores late last year.

These recent endorsements beg the question - how long until Mayra Flores realizes she has no path to victory and does the same?

"Republicans are joining our campaign because they want a winner who can deliver conservative results on Day One," said Eric Flores. "I am honored to have the support of Fred Hinojosa, Scott Mandel, and Jay Nagy. We cannot afford a long, divided primary that only helps the Democrats. It's time to come together, protect our border, and flip this seat."

In case you missed it...

Fred Hinojosa announced his endorsement on social media, calling for party unity to win in November. Link to X Post.

Scott Mandel joined Newsmax earlier today to officially back Flores, citing Eric's background as a prosecutor and veteran as the "proven fighter" the district needs. Link to Newsmax Interview.

Jay Nagy encouraged his supporters to join him in voting for Eric because "Eric can win" for Republicans. Link to X Post.
